

Minutes from Monday, March 4, 2008

Submitted by Marsha De Broske

- Meeting began at 7:12pm. Amy, Carol, Steve, Cheryl, Nick, Jim, Marcos, David, Marsha, Daryl, Jill, Mindy, Brian and Irene were present.
- A press release about the group was being written to send to Jill at the Sentinel newspaper. Also, a blurb was in the artist registry about calling sculptors to submit one-sheets for the resource book.
- Marcos stated Modern was more costly for the carbon steel for the chess set we were making . They would be 8” square pieces and our pieces should be 12” to 16” tall.
- Resource sheets should be in by March 31. Please give Linda a CD of the image.
- February 2009 is scheduled for the Osceola Center for the Arts.
- 2010 is scheduled for the Casselberry Sculpture Garden. Marsha will give Amy, Jennifer Newman’s phone number to contact her about the Kissimmee Sculpture Experience.
- Jim said that Kent was the chairperson of First Thursdays at OMA. A sculpture show was being scheduled in the future, maybe December.
- Steve needs to talk to Linda about rescheduling the students’ castings for the bronze pendants.
- There are Sculpture magazines that you can check out and you can access on-line information.
- Another link would be juryartservices.com
- Marcos will be showing at March 8th at the Black Chapel Tattoo.
- Carol discussed bronze pricing and stated that if a gallery is representing you at least double or triple the labor and foundry cost.
- Announcements about David Emley’s and David Cumbie’s styrofoam carving workshop on Saturday and Sunday, March 22nd and 23rd.
- Meeting was adjourned 8:15pm